EL PORVENIR, ¡YA!

Citlalzazanilli Mexicatl

Chicano Science Fiction Anthology

add up to a breakthrough for Mexican American story-telling: the first all-Chicano anthology of sci-fi lit by established and upcoming writers.

The title sums up the underlying roots of this collection; it takes Spanish, Nahuatl and English to tell the whole tale. This collection is a coming out party for raza re-interpreters of the past, the now and the future.

As you read from story to story, if you're Mexican American, Chicano, you'll find yourself in space, physically, mentally or emotionally, but it is you there, not an "other" or a version of who others think we are. Sci-fi is the perfect place to explore the relevance of Chicanismo to literature, to the future and to the destiny that awaits all of us.

The line-up of authors includes:

Ernest Hogan, Mario Acevedo, Frank S. Lechuga, Martin Hill Ortiz, Pedro Iniguez, Nicholas Belardes, Armando Rendón, Lizz

Huerta, Emmanuel Valtierra, Rios de La Luz, Beatrice Pita, Rosaura Sánchez, R. Ch. Garcia, Ricardo Tavaréz, Rosa Martha Villarreal, Carmen Baca, Scott Russell Duncan, Gloria Delgado, and Kathleen Alcalá.
