The Somos en escrito Literary Foundation, a non-profit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization, operates Somos en escrito Magazine and the publishing house, Somos en escrito Literary Foundation Press. We seek to be the go-to place for Mexican American, Native American, and U.S. Latinos to publish their works.

Our first books, released in 2020, include two finalists in the International Latino Book Awards, Insurgent Aztlán, by Ernesto Todd Mireles and Theorizing César Chávez, New ways of Knowing STEM. Our next published books were Postcards from a PostMexican, by Álvaro Ramírez, and Undesirable Race and Remembrance by Robert René Galván. In 2021, we have proudly published Our Grandfathers Were Braceros and We Too, a bilingual on the Bracero Program, and the Chicano Fantasy book, Death Song of the Dragón Chicxulub by R. Ch. Garcia. We are soon to publish two anthologies, Nuestra Realidad Creativa / Our Creative Reality, a nonfiction anthology, and El Porvenir, Ya! Citlalzazanilli Mexicatl, a Chicano Science-Fiction anthology.
